G. Write-up of self-evaluation regarding different fields of activity relating to the job.

I am from a rural peasant family. I belong to the holy land of Sri Damdama Sahib (Talwandi Sabo) where the tenth Sikh Guru Gobind Singh got the holy Granth 'Shri Guru Granth Sahib' through the hands of Bhai Mani Singh. I lost my father in the very tiny age of 3 years. I struggled a lot to make her carrier a success with all out cooperation & support of her widow mother. It is because of this background that I always give preference to students belonging to rural areas. Many of my students have qualified UGC (NET) & JRF while some other are settled in government sector. My research includes the philosophy of Sri Guru Granth Sahib, Gurmat Principles and Popularity of Sikh history. I have 28 years' experience of teaching and research.

I am M.A. honors, M.A. Religion (Gold medalist), M.A. Sikh Studies (Gold medalist), UGC (JRF), M.Phil, Ph.D. from Punjabi and Punjab Universities. I have credited the Punjabi Reader with my 7 books and various other reviews that have been published both in India and abroad. I presented more than a 100 papers in various seminars, workshop and conferences. She has excellence towards her work as around 60 students have completed M.Phil. and 12 students have completed Ph.D. under my guidance. I have been awarded with 'Bibi Gulab Kaur Memorial Award' on 31st October, 2015 by Hardarshan Memorial International Trust Canada Society.

Along with my academic & literary embellishment, I have served as member – Faculty of Languages, Undergraduate Studies Board, PG Studies Board, M.Phil Course Committee, Ph.D Course Committee. I am also editorial member of Punjabi University Patiala's 'Punjabi Duniya' and 'Jan Sahit'. I am also in charge of NSS Unit at Regional Center, Bathinda. I have been regularly cooperating with the Sikh scholars of the world for propagating values upheld by Sikhs in the history especially by Sikh martyrs. S. Jaiteg Singh Anant fro Canada is one of such scholars sitting amongst us. I feel that my greatest achievement lies in the fact that I am always working for the upliftment of her students by bringing them close to Sikh Religion and spiritualism.
